

Claire Watson

Claire Watson works in Thomson Snell & Passmore's commercial property department, which has wide experience in dealing with the legal and financial aspects of building, buying, selling, leasing or sub-letting of shops, offices and industrial and commercial premises of all kinds.

The team handles an extensive range of commercial property transactions for large and small companies, institutions, pension funds and businesses, as well as private individuals. The team is highly regarded for its property expertise.