

S u s a n S u l l i v a n

Susan is a partner in the Professional Negligence Unit which forms part of the Dispute Resolution Team.

The team deals with claims for and against a wide variety of professionals; architects, surveyors, solicitors, barristers and accountants. Susan has also undertaken disciplinary work prosecuting for the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors and advising individuals in disciplinary proceedings.

In addition to work for and against professionals, Susan is developing an expanding niche practice advising clients on issues relating to the validity of Wills, claims against estates and contested Probate actions.

Susan's cases are mainly conducted in the High Court, both in the Queen's Bench Division and the Chancery Division.

Reported cases include:

- = UDT Limited v Shellpoint Trustees
- = Murphy v Owen White
- = re Quilter deceased.

Susan joined the firm in 1995. She became a Partner in 1998 and heads up the Professional Negligence Unit.